

I seek concurrent symbolic and arabic-numeral footnotes that follow the Chicago Manual of Style 14.24.

A symbolic footnote should be superscript as the in-text reference.* Arabic-numeral footnotes should also be superscript as the in-text reference.<sup>1</sup>

*But the symbol at the beginning of the note itself should not be superscript and not followed by a period.

<sup>1</sup>The numeral should not be superscript at the beginning of the note, which should also be followed by a period.
